3rd Annual Doggie Dash Benefits CCHS

Ashley and her dog, Drake.

CCHS would like to thank all the participants, their wonderful dogs, the friends and family who came to observe, our CCHS members and volunteers, the sponsors (Southwire, Times-Georgian, DieTech Industries, Sertoma, Cox Plumbing, Jane Carroll, Carrollton Obstetrics and Gynecology, Rebecca L. Smith and Dr. Tejal Kakade), and especially the folks at Carroll County Animal Hospital, for their hard work, generosity, and support.

Days. There will be tractors of all shapes and sizes, hay rides, wood carvers, saw mill demonstration, music, tractor pull, bouncy houses, petting zoo, and more. The Blue Ribbon Cake and Pie contest sponsored by West Georgia Living Magazine will be on Sunday afternoon, and special guest, Georgia Commissioner of Agriculture Gary Black, will be at the Fair on Saturday morning for the opening ceremonies.

Be sure to visit us at the CCHS booth!

We will have animals from the local shelter up for adoption, as well as items for sale. Stop by and say hello! Hope to see you there!

HORTON'S BOOKS AND GIFTS HOSTS ADOPTION EVENT

Many thanks to Dottie Pittman of Horton's Books and Gifts for inviting the shelter dogs out and holding this event to benefit CCHS and the Carroll County shelter animals. We're so happy for the two dogs that found new homes and for their new families!

We also want to thank Agape Hospice and their therapy dogs, Colbear and Dixie; Sylvia Kelly of Canine College; and all the volunteers and passersby who made it such a fun day.

Two special therapy dogs joined us for part of the day - Colbear on the left and Dixie in the middle. They are being held by Judi Edens and Teresa Leslie, CCHS president. The big brown dog in the photo is NOT available for adoption.

Here's Margaret from Horton's showing some of the many books about dogs and cats that are available at the store. (CCHS's Happy Pets Cookbook is also sold here!)
