

Only through our members, volunteers, donors and supporters are we able to help the animals in our community. Thank you for helping us be there for those who cannot speak for themselves. Donations are tax deductible and go directly to helping animals in need.

Adopt A Life-Long Friend!

Please Join Us for the CCHS Fall Quarterly Meeting

Thursday, September 18th
6:30 p.m.

at the Stallings Center's Lions Room
(South White Street, Carrollton)

We are very excited to welcome Carrollton Police K-9 unit officer Ivey Rollins and her K9 partner, Imala, as our special guests. Officer Rollins will talk about the work of the K-9 Unit.

We will also be discussing fall events, including the Fun Dog Show. Come share some refreshments and fun, whether or not you are currently a member of Carroll County Humane Society.

Upcoming CCHS Offsite Adoption Events

Saturday, September 20
10am-2pm

Pet Appreciation Day at Tractor Supply in Carrollton
We will have foster dogs and shelter dogs for adoption.

Saturday, November 8
Belk's Fall Charity Day
CCHS will be one of the charities represented at this event. We'll be selling tickets for $5 that entitle the bearer to get discounts on items throughout the store at Belk's on that day.

Volunteers of the Quarter

We honored two volunteers for the summer quarter:

Chuck Wilterding
Mae Sexton Brown

We also honored two board members for the summer quarter: cat whisperer, Dr. Rob Sanders, and foster chair, David Padgett.

GREAT NEWS:

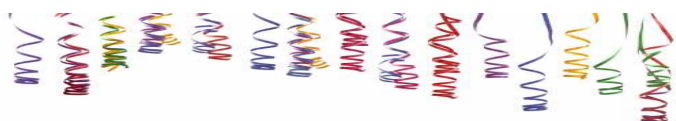

Kroger has extended their Community Rewards Program for another year!

IMPORTANT:

People who signed up last year need to renew their choice of CCHS by visiting the Kroger website and linking their cards to CCHS again.

Our supporters (82 households) who shopped at Kroger between 06/01/2014 and 08/31/2014 (Cycle 1, Qtr 4) earned CCHS a $209.90 total donation! Please continue using your Kroger card to earn dollars for CCHS. Thank you for your continued support!
